

Forex Course

Become a global trader.

The 24-hour foreign currency marketplace is the most actively traded in the world – and has the highest liquidity available anywhere. Forex represents nearly endless financial opportunity, but also significant risk. At this level, the right education is more important than ever.

Investools from TD Ameritrade Holding Corp. created a course that can equip you with the understanding you need to capitalize on the forex market.

By the time you're done, you'll be able to:

- 1 Explain the basics of the forex market – what it is, how it works and how trades are placed.
- 2 Trade currency pairs using a sound understanding of the forex market and the thinkorswim from TD Ameritrade trading platform.
- 3 Identify and leverage technical and fundamental buying opportunities.
- 4 Analyze price movements.
- 5 Recognize intraday entry and exit signals that are unique to the forex market.
- 6 Define and create rules-based investing systems for various forex trading strategies.
- 7 Leverage technical indicators such as investor sentiment, price movements and trend strength to help determine trading decisions.
- 8 Distinguish between swing traders and scalpers so you can better understand price movement in the forex market.
